OFFICE MEMORANDUM

Sub: Celebration of Hindi Diwas on 10th January 2019 in AHCI, Khulna

As per instructions from Government of India, Hindi Diwas will be celebrated on 10th January, 2019 onwards in the premises of AHCI, Khulna. In this connection, all Indian citizens and local interested nationals are hereby informed that various Hindi language related activities shall be observed in the office hall of Assistant High Commission of India, Khulna. The following Hindi competitions are being proposed to be held soon:

- Hindi Essay writing competition : In any subject
- Debates in Hindi : by mutual consent
- Hindi Poem Recitation : self-written poems or by famous poets
- An article in Hindi : Importance of Hindi & other subjects

2. The relevance of Hindi is highly important in the present context of popularity of Hindi films and TV serials and particularly in Khulna division being located on the borders of India. Hindi cinema, songs and music have traditionally been relished by the local people here on par with Bengali language. It is a golden opportunity for the Indian and local nationals to learn and promote understanding in Hindi.

3. All participants shall be given special prizes and memento along with appreciation letter. I appeal to all Indian citizens to participate in a large numbers and to make Hindi Diwas a highly successful event. Please convey your participation in Hindi competition on hoc.khulna@mea.gov.in by this weekend. Please advertise the initiative of the Government of India and motivate all Indian and local nationals to participate in all the above proposed activities. A special certificate will be given to the head of Indian companies for encouraging participation in large numbers from their respective offices.

With best wishes,

(Rajesh Kumar Raina)
Assistant High Commissioner of India
Assistant High Commission of India, Khulna
